The Land of the Bible

Your trip to Israel will be absolutely life-changing. After you take a class to prepare for your trip, you will walk where Jesus walked and see the pages of your Bible come to life. There is something incredibly powerful about walking in the same cities and being on a boat in the same waters where Jesus and the early disciples were. Standing in the waters of the Jordan River and walking the path of Jesus to the cross deepens your faith and awakens your spirit. You get to experience the Bible. Your faith becomes stronger. The sights, sounds, and smells permeate your being and testify to the truths of Scripture. This journey will deeply impact your soul and stay with you forever. Enjoy the breathtaking landscapes of this sacred place.

The land of the Bible, its memories, its beauty, and its people will capture your heart and become a part of you forever.

The Holy Land is considered by many as the living fifth Gospel because the geography reveals the truths of the Scriptures. The mountains, valleys, and lakes are all still just as they were in the Bible. It gives validity to every reference made.
